

The drawing shows a two-story building facade. The upper story is shaded green and contains two windows, each labeled with a '7'. The lower story is white and contains two windows, each labeled with a '3' and a '7'. Below the white section is a yellow horizontal band, and at the bottom is a large window with three panes, each labeled with a '7'. Dimensions are provided for window heights (155, 80, 255) and overall section heights (310, 43, 39). Elevation markers include +12.45, +7.11, +6.48, +3.24, and +0.15. A red box at the top contains the text 'VOORWAARDE(N)'. Various numbered callouts (1, 2, 3, 4, 6) point to specific architectural details.
